ABOUT THE SITE

LyondellBasell's Lansing Business and Technical Center was constructed in 1990 and purchased by the Michigan State University Foundation in 2006. The facility is located in the University Corporate Research Park (UCRP) of MSU located off US 127. It was architecturally designed to integrate the various functional activities of product development, product testing, product management, business management, customer service and production planning and scheduling, in keeping with their priority and frequency of interaction. Its labs conduct application development and performance testing for automotive and other durable goods applications in North America. Laboratory staff performs Production Part Approval Process testing and Bulk Material Approval Process testing in support of original equipment manufacturer material approvals. The facility is equipped to evaluate physical properties, paint durability and environmental performance. A polymers fabrication center prepares material samples and molded specimens for test procedures.

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

LyondellBasell is committed to being a responsible, good neighbor in the communities where we operate. The Lansing Business and Technical Center supports the community by volunteering with various groups including:

- Capital Area United Way
- St. Vincent's Home for Children
- Lansing Food Bank
