

Lake Charles Polymers

4101 Highway 108 Westlake, LA 70669 (US) / 337-439-7391

Total Employees: ~250

Products

Produced

The products manufactured at the Lake Charles facility include the below:

Polypropylene

Catalloy resins

End Uses

The products from the Lake Charles facility are used in the production of the following end-use materials.

Construction and roofing materials

Small household appliances

Food packaging

Automotive exteriors

Caps and closures

Contact for Media Inquiries

Media Relations

lyondellbasellmediarelations@lyb.com

Community Engagement

- Carlyss Fire Department
- Calcasieu Parish School Board Partners in Education- Starks High School
- McNeese State University
- Sowela Technical Community College

Sustainability at Lake Charles Polymers

- LyondellBasell Lake Charles is committed to operating sustainably and being a responsible and good neighbor to our communities.
- This site plays an instrumental role in our overall objective to reduce our carbon footprint and greenhouse gas emissions by 2030.
- This site is International Sustainability and Carbon Certification (ISCC) + Certified

Regional News

Scan QR Code for News updates